

Aline's Newsletter

Issue 1 - September 16th, 2006

Hi everyone,

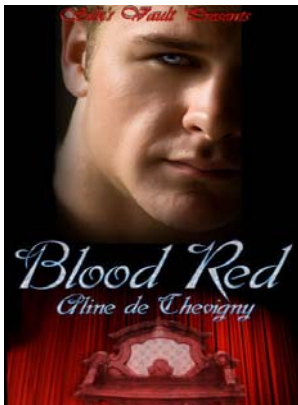

Well what's up with me, you ask? I sold a book to Forbidden publications called One Night ... Hence the reason the Newsletter is late. I was hoping to show you my new cover. Well I promise you'll all be the first to see it.

Here's the Blurb:

Darren likes to play the field, and has no interest in looking for a serious relationship. When he meets Tabetha, the sparks fly, and to his shock she agrees to sleep with him. But there's a catch, he has to promise it's only for one night, with no strings attached.

Don't make promises you can't keep. Once isn't enough, not for either of them, but that doesn't mean a relationship between them is going to be easy-not with vindictive ex-girlfriends, interfering fathers and the kind of misunderstandings that are bound to happen when you've only known someone one night.

I was recently informed that Blood Red my latest release from Silk's Vault is doing amazingly well. And that is a big thank you to all of you.

So in appreciation I will send everyone who emails me at:
alinecontests@alinedecheigny.com

Either a bookmark or magnet or You get the idea. Either way you will receive something with the book cover on it.

When we reach 50 sales I have a special prize. I'll hold a draw for everyone who has a receipt and give away 2 tee shirts. Yes you heard me tee's with that hunk on the chest LOL.

I have 2 other books in submissions awaiting approval LOL or rejection. So as soon as I hear anything I'll tell you all.

Lastly I wanted to remind you all that I have 2 other books out right now at Silk's Vault. I've added book covers and blurbs for your enjoyment.

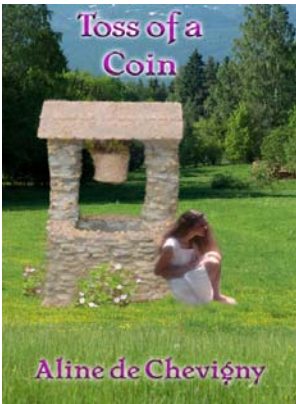

If you like Romantic thrillers then please check out Psychotic.

If it's Historical Time Travels you prefer then Toss of a Coin is for you.

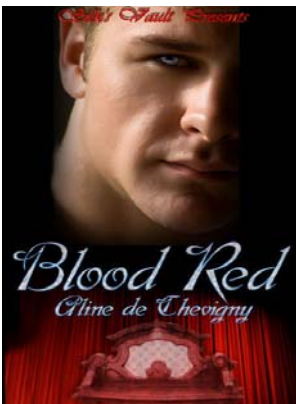

Doctor Amy Allens isn't looking for love; she's looking for a killer. As a Psychoanalyst she can see into the dark minds that prey on humanity - but Detective Ry Stevens is a complete mystery.

Will their growing attraction make them a stronger team or will the sexual sparks be a distraction that costs them their lives?

A grandmother's last request, a mysterious old coin, and a heartfelt wish.

Armed with a mysterious package, Angelica travels to Scotland to fulfill the requirements of her grandmother's will. The package contains an ancient coin and a letter telling her to make one wish. Angelica's wish for true love sends her back in time and into the arms of a man who could make all of her dreams come true – if she'll let him.

Mikael De Wohlf better known to his kind as Cerberus Gnosis, became the head of his clan with the simple act of killing his Sire. That act alone gained him the power and respect he needed to take control of all the ruling houses and reshape the clans to help them survive in this day and age. His reputation painted him as a ruthless killer and terrified everyone who knew him, everyone but her. Everyone but his Bella, his obsession.

Annabella Micelli knew exactly who he was and wasn't afraid of him one bit. To her dismay she found herself attracted to him and couldn't get him out of her mind. As keeper for his clan she had insights into the Vampire world that other humans would never have and could never know of.

Will Mikael be able win over the one person that could help him attain his goals, or ruin the one chance he had at happiness?
